ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Seventeen samples of the milk sold by the Bennington milk dealers have been analyzed at the state laboratory and found to be much above the stand-ard required for milk by the state board of health.

Horatio Elwell and Horatio Lamphere, the two men who assaulted Michael Donahue, an old man, some months ago, were sentenced in Burlington city court Monday morning to nine mouths and one year respectively in the house of correction at Rutland.

Charles Bentrovato of North Walpole, N. H., who was arrested in Rutland a few days ago for shooting Charles Demarko, at the former town while in jail at Rutland admitted his guilt and has been taken to the place of the shooting by officers of that town.

The sixteen years old daughter of John Wood of Shrewsbury, and Mr. Wood's hired man who cloped last Thursday but were caught before they had ben married, got away again Sat-urday night and were married at Hamp-ton, N. I., by Justice Clark late that night.

The ease which is attracting much widespread interest in Windham county court is that of George T. Shanks, idministrator, against the Central Vernont railroad, to recover for the death of Almar W. Shattnek, the engineer who was killed near the Williamsville There must be something wrong with Little Louise Annis, the five years' old daughter of Aiba Adains of Island Pond, met her death in a horrible menter recently. She stood on the store to pour some oil onto a fird in a stove. The oil blazed up and caught her elothes on fire. She was so terribly humed about the body that congestion of the lungs set in and death followed.
